

The Masters Turkey Shoot

The Masters Turkey Shoot proved to be great fun. There were two draws – one starting at 8:30 AM Friday, December 20th and the other starting at 11:00 AM.

The basic rules were that each curler played 4 games of 2 ends, where each curler played a different position each end, and in each game each curler changed teams, position and ice.

The winner of the first turkey shoot was Doug Schneider followed by Gordon Irwin and Stan Hegstrom; however in the second draw the Top two winners of that draw were...
